Even so, novices can soon become reasonably adept at it, as you will discover while participating in a friendly game.

DESCRIPTION

Visit one of the Médoc region's most critical 17th-century citadels and enjoy a wine tasting at a glorious château. Relax on a lovely journey through a vineyard-strewn landscape to Fort Médoc, a 17th-century fortification that has been designated a UNESCO World Heritage site. You'll learn the fort was conceived by influential French military architect Vauban, trusted advisor to Louis XIV, to protect the Gironde estuary against British invasions, as the width and length of the waterway made it a particularly appealing target for inland naval forays. You'll survey the grand main entrance, the waterworks, the fascinating underground room and the barracks. Upon concluding your enlightening tour, make your way to splendid Château Lanessan, a family-run estate and winery built in 1878. You'll admire the manor's graceful architecture and charming outbuildings, which are set on a 20-acre park surrounded by vineyards and dotted with hundred-year-old trees. As a palate-pleasing finale to your perfect excursion, relish a tasting of two of the château's wines.

Embark on a panoramic tour that showcases the first-century Roman amphitheater, the stately Arc de Germanicus, the 19th-century Abbaye aux Dames and the Romanesque Saint-Eutrope Church, which features a 12th-century crypt. In Cognac, birthplace of François I and cradle of the fine brandy that bears its name, you'll notice the town's darkened buildings, a curious effect resulting from the microscopic fungi that thrive on alcoholic fumes. ## BEHIND THE DESIGN - BORDEAUX

HIGHLIGHTS

- Follow an architectural historian through two boldly modern buildings dedicated to the arts.
- Gain insight into the architect's vision in designing the cultural center La Méca.
- Delve into the world of wine in La Cité du Vin, a museum devoted to Bordeaux wines and more.

DESCRIPTION

Explore two modern architectural masterpieces in Bordeaux that make quite a contrast to the city's hundreds of historical monuments. The cultural center La Méca rises above the banks of the Garonne River and appears to be in constant motion because of its highly unusual single-loop shape. Three different arts agencies occupy the inside of the building, whose radiant façade features thousands of concrete slabs sandblasted to expose their raw qualities. The result is mesmerizing from every angle. The museum La Cité du Vin may appear even more stunning and otherworldly as its curvaceous shape is intended to evoke the soul of wine rather than look like anything recognizable. It is an homage to Bordeaux's namesake wines and their history and production is celebrated throughout. The interactive exhibits present the information in ways that are meaningful and fascinating. The Belvedere on the 8th floor is an excellent spot for a glass of wine and to admire the 360° view of Bordeaux.

The first vineyards in the Fronsac region of Bordeaux were planted about 2,000 years ago, so this appellation has a long distinguished history. Even so, in 2015 the new owners of Château de La Dauphine sought to improve its wines by adopting sustainable biodynamic practices that go far beyond organic pesticide-free agricultural methods.
